

Working scientifically skills for uses of everyday materials - KSI

Classify objects made of one material in different ways.

Test the properties of objects, for example, the absorbency of cloths.

Explaining what I found out from my test.