

Everyday Materials Working Scientifically

Explore the work of Charles Mackintosh.

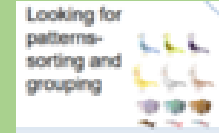

Investigate what materials objects are made of.

Test objects for a particular purpose.

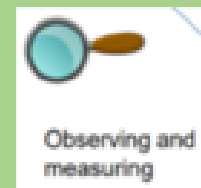

Lead an investigation, for example, which cloth is most absorbent.

Group similar materials together.

Classify objects made of one material.

Classify materials based on their properties.

Describe what the different materials look and feel like.