Introduction

Victoria - 15/07/2026
George - 15/7/26

All educational establishments are subject to a duty under section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 (the CTSA 2015), in the exercise of their functions, to have "due regard to the need to prevent people supporting terrorism or becoming terrorists". This duty is known as the Prevent duty.

Staff in the education sector are particularly important as they are able to identify concerns early and provide help for students, staff and parents to prevent concerns from escalating. Educational establishments and their staff form part of the wider safeguarding system for students. This system is described in statutory guidance Working Together to Safeguard Children (December 2023) and Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2025)

Educational establishments should work with Children's Services, the Police, Health Services, and other services to promote the welfare of students and protect them from harm.

Radicalisation is listed as a specific safeguarding issue within this statutory guidance and is addressed within the Government Prevent Strategy.

The Prevent Strategy has three main objectives:

1. Tackle the causes of radicalisation and respond to the ideological challenges of terrorism
2. Safeguard and support those most at risk of radicalisation through early intervention, identifying them and offering support
3. Enable those who have already engaged in terrorism to disengage and rehabilitate

The Prevent duty should be seen as part of the education sector's wider safeguarding obligations. Designated Safeguarding Leads and other senior leaders in educational establishments should familiarise themselves with the revised Prevent duty guidance especially paragraphs 141-210, which are specifically concerned with education.

The key themes for the education sector within the Prevent duty guidance include:

- Leadership and Partnership
- Risk Assessment
- Sharing Information
- Reducing Permissive Environments (IT Policies / External Speakers)
- Monitoring and Assurance

Duty	What this means	Action	Evidence:
Risk Assessment
Assess the risk of students being radicalised, supporting terrorism or becoming a terrorist	Staff can demonstrate a general understanding of current extremism/terrorism risks	All staff have read Part 1, Part 5, Annex B and Annex C of "Keeping Children Safe in Education", September 2025 The Prevent Lead has informed staff of their duties as set out in "The Prevent Duty" (DfE, June 2015) All staff have completed the online Home Office Prevent Module or attended in house session from DSL Prevent Lead (in the last 12 months)	All staff attend KCSiE updates in September each year to receive updates. Staff meetings weekly have a safeguarding focus. All staff complete Home Office online training annually. Awareness course and referrals course. Certification kept on file on MIS and in school office is personnel files. (October each year)
	Staff can identify individual students who may be at risk of radicalisation and how to support them	The Prevent Lead has informed staff about signs and indicators of radicalisation	Prevent in Education bulletin items posted on The Grid shared with staff at staff meetings as part of standing agenda item of Safeguarding. Use of resources from Safeguarding Network form part of staff updates. Information posters displayed in school office, head's office and staffroom.
	There is a clear procedure in place for protecting students at risk of radicalisation	All staff have read the Safeguarding Policy which includes a statement regarding the Prevent duty. All staff understand how to record and report concerns regarding risk of radicalisation	All staff sign a declaration to say that they have read our safeguarding policy either at the beginning of the school year after KCSiE updates or at induction.

	Students are taught about online safety with specific reference to the risk of radicalisation	The curriculum reflects this duty	Online safety is taught in our Computing Curriculum and our PSHE curriculum. We also focus on internet safety on Internet safety day annually.
Building student resilience to radicalisation
Ensure that students have a "safe environment" in which to discuss "controversial issues"	Students develop "the knowledge, skills and understanding to prepare them to play a full and active part in society"	Through PSHE/Citizenship, and other curriculum activities, students can explore political, religious, and social issues. Students are taught about the diverse national, regional, and ethnic identities in the UK and the need for mutual respect. Relevant staff are aware of the government guidance	Children are taught to be respectful of different identities. This takes place in our PSHE curriculum and in assemblies where we explore social, political and religious issues at an appropriate level. Prevent in Education bulletin items reviewed and shared where needed.
